Local West Hampstead councillor resigns - your chance to choose

Tory deputy leader resigns after angry shop incident

Camden New Journal, 17th July

A local councillor has resigned after CCTV footage showed him threatening and shouting abuse at staff in a shop on Finchley Road.

Councillor Shiva Tiwari swore at an employee when asked for ID, attempted to push past them to collect a parcel and threatened to use his position as a councillor to shut the shop down. Cllr Tiwari was elected in May 2022 as a Labour councillor, but defected to the Conservative Party earlier this year.

There will now be a By-election to elect a new councillor for West Hampstead. Local campaigner Janet Grauberg said 'West Hampstead deserves a local representative who cares about our community, and will work hard all year round.'

SEE INSIDE: YOUR CHANCE TO CHOOSE

Labour is letting West Hampstead down

Not tackling rubbish and anti-social behaviour in our streets

Not giving us the change they promised in government

Not listening to residents on the O2 centre

Janet Grauberg and the Liberal Democrats are standing up for us

Working to clean up our streets and tackle crime and anti-social behaviour

Working hard for local residents all year round

Listening to local residents' concerns and taking action

The Conservatives can't win in West Hampstead

Last time we were just 38 votes from electing Janet Grauberg to be our Lib Dem councillor in West Hampstead.

The choice is clear in the upcoming by-election. Either we will elect a hard-working Liberal Democrat candidate who will stand up for our community, or we will get another invisible Labour councillor.

Make sure you don't waste your vote!
